For Your Information

FYI

When we consider the gifts and graces of the Holy Spirit, we grow as followers of Jesus. We see the effect of the Holy Spirit's presence in our lives in special qualities and attitudes that we develop as we grow in faith. The Church identifies these qualities and attitudes as the Fruits of the Holy Spirit. The Fruits of the Holy Spirit are signs that the Holy Spirit is alive within us and helping us live the Catholic faith in our daily lives.

1832 - The Fruits of the Spirit are perfections that the Holy Spirit forms in us as the first fruits of eternal glory. The tradition of the Church lists twelve of them: "charity, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, generosity, gentleness, faithfulness, modesty, self-control, chastity. (Catechism of the Catholic Church)

LOVE:

We exhibit the virtue of charity, or love, by our unselfish devotion and care for God and our neighbour..

JOY:

We live with joy when we recognize that true happiness comes, not from money or possessions, but from knowing and following Christ.

PEACE:

We are from worrying about "trivial" things because of the inner peace we experience with God in our hearts. We work and pray for peace throughout the world.

PATIENCE:

We demonstrate patience by treating others with thoughtfulness and acceptance.

KINDNESS:

We live in the virtue of kindness by treating others as want to be treated.

GOODNESS:

We exhibit goodness when we honour God by avoiding sin and always trying to do what we know is right.

FAITHFULNESS:

We are faithful when we live out our commitment to the teachings of Jesus, the Scriptures, and the Catholic Church.

GENTLENESS:

Gentle people act calmly and avoid actions that might lead others to anger or resentment..

SELF-CONTROL:

We exercise self-control by working to overcome the temptations we face and by trying always to do God's will.

The gifts bear fruit. St Paul speaks of the fruits of the Spirit in Galatians 5:22-23. The Fruits of the Spirit are evident in how we act in our lives.

By contrast, the Fruits of the Spirit are love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against such things. (Galatians 5:22-2).

We receive these gifts when we are in a state of grace, the life of God lies within us.

Through Confirmation we are asking the spirit to bring these gifts to life in each one of us. The call of the Holy Spirit in Confirmation calls us to enter fully into the life of the faith community.

That's a Fact!

But the Fruits of the Spirit are love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control. Each of these is a characteristic of the Holy Spirit's presence in our daily lives.

The following questions and activities are designed to allow both groups to experience a rich dialogue;

Introduce yourself: students provide your full name. Always end with "thank you" allowing the partner school to know you've finished speaking. To better engage in discussion, it is encouraged to refer to questions numerically with your partner school.

O, Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love; For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; it is in dying that we are born again to eternal life.
